

Complaint Policy Statement

Food Banks Canada is committed to providing excellent service. We recognize that from time to time there may be inquiries, concerns or complaints and we believe that our stakeholders have the right to tell us about them. We also have a responsibility to respond to them appropriately, resolving complaints in a timely, fair, respectful and consistent manner. This policy ensures that we have a coordinated and consistent response to complaints, and that our responses are informed by our mission, vision and values.

Any individual, donor, prospective donor, member of the general public, provincial association, affiliate food bank, and/or business who may have a complaint about Food Banks Canada are encouraged to contact Food Banks Canada directly. Food Banks Canada can be contacted by phone (905-602-5234) or by e-mail info@foodbankscanada.ca. If you have a concern or complaint, please make sure you provide us with your contact information so that we can follow up with you directly.

Complaints may relate to and are not limited to: Food Banks Canada programs and campaigns, donor-driven fundraising initiatives (e.g. cause-marketing or third party campaigns), individual donations made to Food Banks Canada, tax receipting, gifts-in-kind, donor recognition, compliance with Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), advertising, provincial associations and affiliate food banks, food shared with food banks/individuals etc.

Concerns, questions and complaints that arise will be handled by a Food Banks Canada staff member. A report of complaints is provided regularly to the Board of Directors as to the nature and number of complaints received by Food Banks Canada.
